

WHERE: Cape May
United Methodist Church,
Wednesday, Aug. 6th
At 7:00 p.m.
Located at 635 Washington
St., Cape May. (Across from Victorian Towers, and behind the strip mall.
Next to city hall.

Tickets are $20., adults;
$15. seniors, and $10 adults.

Imagine yourself in Lincoln Center, right here in Cape May. The Daedalus has performed to rave reviews on three continents and continue to win major awards.

Call (609) 465-3963 for information or reservations.

COMING THIS SUMMER

The Daedalus String Quartet

At Access to Art's

11th Annual

Sam Maitin

Chamber Music Festival

In

July, August & Sept.

The Daedalus String Quartet won the Bannf International String Quartet Competition, were the Lincoln Center Chamber Music Two Quartet for 2005-6, and 2006-7, won the Echo (European Concert Hall Organization) Rising Star Program with Carnegie Hall and were sent to Athens, Amsterdam, Brussels, Baden-Baden, Cologne, Paris, Salzburg, and Vienna.
Winners of Lincoln Center's Martin E. Segal Award and Chamber Music America's Guarneri String Quartet Award in 2007

They perform at the Mostly Mozart Festival in Lincoln Center, the Caramoor Festival (where they have been the Ernst Stiefel Quartet in Residence,) the Bard Music Festival, the Next Generation Festival in Pennsylvania, the Skaneateles Festival, Music Mountain and the Music Festival of the Hamptons.